The Bryan Rotary Club/Newman 10 Business Performance Awards follow INC. 500 guidelines and select companies on a ranking of gross sales figures for the last three-year period and whose business philosophy is consistent with the Object of Rotary. All qualifying applicants are included. The 10 companies with the highest percentage increase will receive The Bryan Rotary Club/Newman 10 Business Performance Awards.

NOTE: When your application is received by the Mays Business School, a confirmation will be sent to you by e-mail. Also, winners will be notified at least 3 weeks in advance of the awards luncheon.

By signing the application, your company's representative authorizes public disclosure of the percentage range of profitability only. Application forms must be signed by a CPA.

The Awards are sponsored by The Bryan Rotary Club, in cooperation with the Bryan/College Station Chamber of Commerce and in partnership with the Mays Business School at Texas A&M University.

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The advancement of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
